What the Headlines Say.

The Hargis faction in Breathitt county were defeated by the fusion ticket by 500 majority, which means a change for the better in Breathitt.

Louisville Democrats elected Barth as Mayor by more than 5,000 majority.

Ohio seems to have gone Democratic by a small majority, and George B. Cox has retired from politics.

The Constitutional Amendment in Kentucky was defeated by a large vote.

Indications point to the defeat of J. S. C. Blackburn in the next General Assembly by Thos. Paynter, now a member of the Court of Appeals.

The troubles at Middlesboro growing out of the assassination of Jack Bolon, are beginning to quiet down, and the Balls now propose to surrender as soon as they are assured a fair trial.

PROCLAMATION

Of National Thanksgiving issued by President Roosevelt.

The President has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation as follows:

"By the President of the United States: A Proclamation:

"When, nearly three centuries ago, the settlers came to the country which has now become this great republic they confronted not only hard ship and privation, but terrible risk of their lives. In those grim years the custom grew of setting apart one day in each year for a special service of thanksgiving to the Almighty for preserving the people through the changing seasons. The custom has now become national and followed by innumerable usages. We live in easier and more plentiful times than our forefathers, the men who with rugged strength faced the rugged days; and yet the dangers to national life are quite as great now as at any previous time in our history. It is eminently fitting that once a year our people should set apart a day for praise and thanksgiving to the Giver of good, and at the same time that they express their thankfulness for the abundant mercies received, should manfully acknowledge their shortcomings and pledge themselves solemnly and in good faith to strive to overcome them. During the last year we have been blessed with unusual crops. Our business prosperity has been great. No other people have ever stood on as high a level of well being as ours now stand. We are not threatened by foes from without. The foes from whom we should pray to be delivered are our own passions, appetites and follies, and against these there is always need that we should war.

"Therefore, I now set apart Thursday, the 30th day of this November, as a day of thanksgiving for the past and prayer for the future, and on that day I ask that throughout the land the people gather in their homes and places of worship, and, in rendering thanks unto the Most High for the manifold blessings of the past year, consecrate themselves to a life of cleanliness, honor and wisdom, so that this nation may do its allotted work on the earth in a manner worthy of those who founded it and of those who preserved it.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this 20 day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and five, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirtieth.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The people of Knox county have said by their vote that the old Court House is good enough for them by a vote of 210 having the new building to 1698 opposing it. There is no doubt as to the decision, and yet we feel that had the people been made acquainted with the proposition it would have carried by as large a majority as the one by which it was selected.

Judge Faulkner has said he intends to let the Federal Court still repair the Court House and make practically a new house of it. Now, judge, it is up to you to do it. The Advocate is with you, and we hope that you will make your words good and give a respectable building to Knox county. If the people prefer paying cash rather than have twenty years in which to make this much needed improvement, let her go at it.

THE ELECTION.

Election day passed off quietly in Knox county last Tuesday and a light vote was polled throughout the county. There was no opposition to the county ticket, and there was no interest except in the precincts where there were opposing magisterial candidates which added some life to the election.

In three of the eight precincts the independent candidates were the victors, defeating the nominees in some instances by large majorities.

The Constitutional Amendment was voted down in this county by a good majority, and the Court households were also badly defeated.

In Tammam's precinct the stock law carried by a good majority and elected a Democratic justice of the peace.

In town there was a move to defeat the Republican nominee for Mayor, but the effort was a weak one and went down in an overwhelming defeat.

There was but little drunkenness noticed about town and the day passed off without trouble of any kind, and defeated candidates took their medicine like fine fellows, and will be good after this.

Elsewhere in this issue we give a table of complete returns showing the vote of the entire county.

The Cumberland railroad is being pushed on through to Jellico from Artimus, where it connects with the L. & N. Rys., and it is only a short time now until it will connect at Jellico with the Southern.

We tell some time ago that this road could be brought into Barbourville if the proper effort was made by the citizen here, but as yet no steps have been taken to get this line extended here.

We have been told that this company will build their road into Barbourville yet if our people will interest themselves and secure the right-of-way between this city and Artimus, and if they will do it our citizens should take the matter up and secure the right-of-way for them at once, and have this line extended here. It means a great deal to Barbourville, as it would bring the managers and operators of this road, and the mines along its line, into our city to reside, because they would have the advantage of good schools here, and it would prove much more pleasant for them to live here than in the mining camps. A train would be run out from here every morning and return in the evenings, which would make it very convenient for the men employed in the work.

Let's have some good citizen take this matter in hand and see if the right-of-way and see what can be done toward getting the Cumberland road extended and connected with our town.

Who will take this matter in hand and push the matter to a finish.

If the vote throughout the State was as it is in Knox there will be no amendment to the Constitution for a few days.

TROUBLE.

It is a well known fact that everybody in every kind of business have their troubles, and it is useless to make trouble for yourself and your neighbor by putting off until next week what should be done to-day.

Time is money, and wasted time is money lost, and for this reason it costs us about three times as much as it should to collect our bills. We do not desire to be unreasonable, but we dislike to walk the town over six times a week to collect what we ought to collect in one day. It is our duty to see you and present our bill once and if you fail to pay, then it should be your duty to see us and make settlement if we grant you further time on your bill.

There must be a remedy for this and a rule established so that hereafter all light bills not paid by the 10th of each month will be cut out, unless some satisfactory agreement has been made by that time.

GOD BLESS THE HUMAN SUNBEAM.
God bless the human sunbeams,
The men both strong and true,
Who daily sing and whistle
At all they have to do.
Their eyes are clear and merry
Their steps are firm and light,
Their laugh's a benediction,
And life once more seems bright.

God bless the human sunbeams,
The women, though sad,
Can still be self-forgetful
And other hearts make glad.
There is a blessed mission,
Their smiles can light the day,
Their cherry words of comfort.

God bless the human sunbeams,
The children fair and fond,
Who come into our presence,
Life's hardest lessons don't,
Their prattle talks like music,
Just as a tear drop stings;
Their lisp and caresses
Can ease poor burdened hearts.

God bless the human sunbeams,
Men, women and children, too,
Who add to life much sweetness,
And leave us less to rue,
God bless them! they're worthy,

Football.

Last Saturday afternoon a game of football was played on the college campus between Union College and Williamsburg Academy, which resulted in a victory for Union College, the score being 27 to 0 in favor of Union.

This was a great victory for Union, as they had gone down twice in defeat before, and the Academy expected to find our boys an easy mark, but in this they were disappointed and were compelled to take their defeat.

The team is improving rapidly, and with a little practice will be able to stand out against almost any team that may meet them on the gridiron.

is he is right. A woman will choose ice cream instead of beefsteak, and a man will not.

Another of her mistakes is in not knowing when to rest. If she is tired, she may sit down, but she will darn stockings, crochet shawls, embroider doilies. Does not know she is exhausted, she will write letters or figure her accounts. She will laugh at you if you hinted that reading or writing could fail to rest her. All over the country woman's hospital's flourish because women do not know how to rest.

Another mistake on the list is their constant worrying. Worry and hurry are their enemies, and yet they hug them to their bosoms. Women cross bridges before they come to them, and even build bridges to cross. They imagine misfortune and run out to meet it.

Women are not jolly enough. They make too serious business of life, and laugh at its humors too seldom. Men can stop in the midst of perplexities and have a hearty laugh, and it keeps them young. Women cannot, and that is one reason why they fade so early—there are other reasons, but will pass them now. Worry not only wrinkles the face, but it wrinkles and worries the mind. Have a hearty laugh once in a while; it is a good antiseptic and will purify the mental atmosphere, and drive away evil imaginings, bad temper and other ills.

FRIENDS.

A friend in the house is a blessing. We all need friends. Happiness and growth depend upon the stimulus of ungenial companionship. Heart and mind and body work well enough in solitude for a time, but soon the demand for companionship becomes imperative, and without it the best part of our nature dies. Life becomes a mere existence, hardly worth the living. "We lose our days and are barren of thought for want of some person to talk to. The understanding can no more empty itself by its own action than can a den box." Thought crystallizes in speech. The mental effort necessary to communicate our ideas to others stimulates the brain to renewed activity, and so the mind is brightened by conversation with a friend. The wise man has said: "The ornament of a house is the friends who frequent it. There is no event greater in life than the appearance of new persons about our hearth, except it be the progress of the character which draws them. It has been finely added by Laundor to his definition of the great man, "It is he who can call together the most select company when it pleases him." A verse of the old Greek meander remains, which runs in translation: "Not on the store of sprightly wine, Nor plenty of delicious meat, Though generous Nature did design To court us with perpetual treats, 'Tis not on these we for content depend So much as on the shadow of a friend."

MISTAKES OF WOMAN.

One of the mistakes of women is not knowing how to eat. If a man is not to be fed, she thinks a cup of tea and anything handy is good enough. If she needs to save money, she does it at the butcher's cost. If she is busy, she will not waste time in eating. If she is unhappy, she goes without food. A man eats if the sheriff is at the door, if his work drives, if the undertaker interrupts,

DRAGGING

down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods, wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is that marvelous, curative extract, or natural wine, of herbs, which exerts such a wonderful, strengthening influence on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain, regulates the menses, stops drains and stimulates the womb muscles to pull the womb up into place.

WINE OF CARDUI

It is a sure and permanent cure for all female complaints.

WRITE US A LETTER

Put aside all timidity and write us freely and frankly, to strictest confidence, telling us all your symptoms and troubles. We will send free advice by plain, sealed envelope, how to cure them. Address: Leo J. Cardui, Druggist, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
